

LIFE'S BLESSINGS [7-99]

Don't be dismayed by this world's wealth,
'haps you've been denied your share.
For the measure used is not always right,
In judging what's just and fair.

So, go your way, be content each day,
With the metes that are handed out.
For you'll find in the end, blessings tend,
To banish the sorrow and doubt.
